Sylacauga High School's FBLA Team Wins State Competition!

Heritage South Credit Union applauds the Sylacauga High School FBLA team on receiving 1st place in the Banking and Financial Systems category at the state FBLA Competition recently in April. Two of our very own high school student workers, Caleb Morgan & Maddie Potts, were on the three-person team and used their personal experiences from Heritage South CU in their presentation. Marlee Beutler also participated in the competition and works at our Aggie Branch at the high school.

Caleb Morgan has worked at the Aggie Branch and at our Hwy 280 Main Branch as a student worker for nearly two years. The time he spent at the credit union learning and serving our members was put to use when their FBLA team was given the case study to market new ideas and events for a financial institution which had been in the community for 100 years. The task was to find products and services that would attract new members that had just moved into the growing community.

Among a few of the examples from HSCU that they used were the HSCU Car Sale, Vacation & Christmas Club Accounts, and Kids Day Blast/Kids Club Account. All of these are key events that make Heritage South CU unique and we are thrilled that our students agree!

Congratulations to the Sylacauga High School Future Business Leaders of America team on their accomplishment!

What is your financial reputation?

Turns out you have a financial reputation. Credit bureaus give you a score based on things like paying your credit card bills on time, and you need a solid one to do anything adult like buy a car or house. Not having a credit history — aka a credit card or line of credit — is bad for your score, since lenders don't know if you're someone who can pay your bills on time.

PS just like the SATs, the higher the score the better.
